

YEAR XIX

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 2009 • DENVER, COLORADO

6:00 PM

MIZEL MUSEUM HONORS SINGLETON

2009 Community Cultural Enrichment Award Recipient Named

COLORADO'S LARGEST ANNUAL FUNDRAISER 1,800 Guests Expected To Honor Singleton

DECEMBER, 2008 – DENVER, CO (AP)

Profound words; stirring images; and worldwide acclaim as publisher of 61 daily newspapers and more than 120 non-daily publications in thirteen states: These are among the triumphs that lead to William Dean Singleton's selection as the Mizel Museum's 2009 Community Cultural Enrichment Award honoree.

The award will be presented at a gala dinner on May 14, 2009 at Wings Over the Rockies, 7711 E. Academy Blvd. in Denver.

Since 1990, the Mizel Museum has annually recognized outstanding contributors to the arts with the Community Cultural Enrichment Award. Among past recipients are last year's honoree Norman Brownstein and 2007 honoree Mayor John Hickenlooper.

Singleton served on the board of the Newspaper Association of America from 1993

The Awards Dinner is the largest annual Colorado fundraiser. Proceeds from the dinner go toward the operations of the Mizel Museum. >>>

Began Legendary Career As A Cub Reporter

William Dean Singleton, 57, is Vice-Chairman and CEO of MediaNews Group, publisher of 61 daily newspapers and over 120 non-daily publications in thirteen states. He founded the company in 1983 and in its 25th year, MediaNews is the Nation's 4th largest newspaper company and the largest privately held newspaper concern. Singleton is also Chairman and Publisher of The Denver Post, the company's largest newspaper, and he is Chairman and Publisher of The Salt Lake Tribune.

He began his newspaper career at the age of 15 as a part-time reporter in his hometown of Graham, Texas, and bought his first newspaper at age 21. He served on the board of the Newspaper Association of America from 1993 until 2004, and is the former Chairman. He also serves as Chairman of the Associated Press Board of Directors. >>>

PRINT MAGNATE'S IMPACT FELT BEYOND NEWSTAND, SAYS MIZEL

"Through his immense ability to reach millions of people with concerns of the City of Denver, the nation and the world, Dean Singleton brings immeasurable cultural enrichment to citizens everywhere," said Larry Mizel, Founder of the Mizel Museum. "The reach he has in changing lives for the good cannot be overstated."

In addition to his commitment to journalism, Singleton is on the Board of Trustees for the Rocky Mountain Multiple Sclerosis Center, the National Sports Center for the Disabled, the Helen G. Bonfils Foundation, the Denver Center for the Performing Arts Foundation and the Winter Park Recreational Association Board. >>>

SEE SECTION D FOR MORE DETAILS

SAVE THE DATE

Social Event of the Year
Honoring Newspaper
Man Dean Singleton

Thursday, May 14, 2009
6 PM

To be held at Wings Over The
Rockies Air & Space Museum

For More Information

Mizel Museum 303-394-9993 X1
Ellen@mizelmuseum.org

Fondly Remembering Cort Dietler

Former Award Recipients: A Who's Who of Civic Icons

- Ray Baker
- Norman Brownstein
- Peter H. Coors
- Cortlandt Dietler
- Cindy and Steve Farber
- Charles P. Gallagher
- Miriam Goldberg
- Rabbi Daniel Goldberger
- Suzy and Jack Grazi
- Mayor John Hickenlooper
- Arlene Hirschfeld
- Donald Kortz
- Robyn and Robert Loup
- Governor Bill Owens and
Frances Owens
- Chancellor Daniel Ritchie
- Ed and Dick Robinson
- Governor Roy Romer
- Cardinal J. Francis Stafford

400 South Kearney Street
Denver, CO 80224

Return Service Requested

Non Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Denver, CO
Permit No. 428