

ADULT

Openings, Classes, Workshops and Events

Don't Miss our Off-Site Exhibitions! Call 303-394-9993 ext. 103 for Dates & Details

©Toby Meyer: Floating In Light

Boris Shoshensky Painting Demo

January 4, 2009 | 6:45 pm - 8:45 pm | $5, (Mizel Museum Artist Alliance members $2)

Location: Mizel Museum

With artist and acclaimed teacher, Boris Shoshensky

Art and the Dremel [how to use one!]

January 8, 2010 | 6:45 pm - 8:45 pm | $5, (Mizel Museum Artist Alliance members $2)

Location: Mizel Museum

This workshop will be given by the inspiring artist, Claudia Roulier. The dremel tool is a handy device that every artist can use in their work. It is especially useful for jewelers, and anyone else using mixed media in their work. You don't need to own one to come to the meeting-come and see what it can inspire you to do with it!

MMAA Artist Ed Stein Exhibit Opening

January 11, 2010 | 5:00 - 7:00 pm | FREE

Location: Kohelet, 428 S Forest St. Denver

3rd Annual Miryam Brand Holocaust Film Project: We Must Remember

January 23, 2010 | 7:00 pm

$12/person (includes parking pass) students free

$15 at the door | Free for students and educators

Location: University of Denver, Davis Auditorium in Sturm Hall, 2000 E. Asbury Ave., Denver

Program and reception presented with the Holocaust Awareness Institute: Screening of We Must Remember, a documentary created by sixteen high school students on a life-changing journey, followed by panel of two of the students and their teacher from Carlsbad, California. Can you add: Reception with panelists follows program.

Drawing on the Torah with MMAA Artist Ed Stein

February 8, 2010 | 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm | $5

Location: Kohelet, 428 S Forest St. Denver

Ed will share his drawings and experience as a political cartoonist through his words and projection of his work throughout his career. Reception with the artist follows.

Book Reading by MMAA Artist Annie Dawid

March 8, 2010 | 6:45 pm - 8:45 pm | $5,

Mizel Museum Artist Alliance members $2 | Location: Kohelet, 428 S Forest St. Denver

Mizel Museum Artist Alliance member, artist and writer Annie Dawid will read selections from her newly published book. Come and join us as we share in Annie's milestone.

Mighty Long Way: Voices from the Civil Rights Movement

March 11, 2010 | 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm | $12 | Held at Kohelet, 428 S Forest St. Denver

Carlotta Walls LaNier, youngest member of the Little Rock Nine and author of Mighty Long Way will be joined by members of the Jewish community to speak about their experience as driving forces in the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960's and how that history is relevant today. Carlotta will autograph books sold that night.

The Moss Hagaddah viewing and Charoset tasting at Temple Emanuel

March 17, 2010 | 0:00 pm - 0:00 pm | $18/person Space is limited, please reserve today!

Location: Congregation Emanuel

Denver's own Temple Emanuel houses one of the most extraordinary examples of a hand-written and Medieval-style illuminated Hagaddah. Join us for this rare opportunity to experience the depth of the Moss Hagaddah, by the artist David Moss, as revealed by Rabbi Steven Foster There will also be a "Charoset Tasting" prepared by Mark Millenson from various international Jewish cultures.

2010 JWIA Sneak Preview: Alana Newhouse and Robin Garbose

April 15, 2010 | 6:00 pm - 7:15 pm | FREE | Held at the Mizel Museum

Location: Mizel Museum

The Mizel Museum and Denver and LEA chapters of Hadassah are thrilled to host artists Alana Newhouse and Robin Garbose for the 2010 Jewish Women in the Arts brunch and program. Benefit even more from the program by joining Mizel Museum Curator Georgina Kolber as she offers a sneak preview of these two artist's unique and fascinating work.

The Transformative and Reparative Qualities of Making Art

April 19, 2010 | 6:45 pm - 8:45 pm | $5 (Mizel Museum Artist Alliance members $2)

Location: Mizel Museum

This unusual presentation by Michael Franklin will introduce the basics of Art therapy and its uses and practices. This will be an interactive and experiential evening with Michael, who has practiced Art therapy for over the past 25 years and has spoken on the subject around the world. Michael heads the Art Therapy Degree program at the Naropa Institute.

Jewish Women in the Arts Brunch, Program, and Art sale

May 16, 2010 | 11:00 am - 2:00 pm | $36

Location: Congregation Emanuel

The Mizel Museum and Hadassah are bringing this great program back for it's 6th year with a new look. Juried exhibit of art of Mizel Museum Artists Alliance and program with national presenters, Alan Newhouse and Robin Garbose.

Encaustic Painting and Personal Expression

June 27, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm AND June 28, 9:00 am - 12:30 pm

Materials fee for encaustic paint, supplies and equipment $60.

$175 for this 2 day workshop | Location: Mizel Museum

Encaustic is an ancient Egyptian painting medium using molten wax mixed with colored pigments. This medium will be demonstrated and the process introduced through hands-on application of encaustic painting medium and photo transfers. Participants will use photo copies in this work.

VISIT WWW.MIZELMUSEUM.ORG FOR MORE INFORMATION